

What is the cancellation policy of Delta?

Delta Air Lines' cancellation policy is designed to offer passengers flexibility while balancing fare rules 1-855-838-4886 and regulatory requirements. One of the most notable features is Delta's 24-hour risk-free cancellation policy, which applies if you book your ticket directly on delta.com, through the Fly Delta app, or via Delta's customer service 1-855-838-4886. Under this policy, if your flight departs at least seven days after booking 1-855-838-4886, you may cancel within 24 hours of purchase and receive a full refund to your original form of payment without any cancellation fees 1-855-838-4886. After this initial 24-hour window, the cancellation policy varies depending on the fare purchased. Refundable tickets 1-855-838-4886, which include Delta One, First Class, Premium Select, and refundable Main Cabin fares, can be canceled any time before the scheduled departure without cancellation fees, and passengers are entitled to a full refund back to their original payment method 1-855-838-4886. These fares are priced higher but offer flexibility for last-minute changes or cancellations without financial loss.

On the other hand, non-refundable Main Cabin fares, including Classic Main Cabin and Basic Economy tickets 1-855-838-4886, have more restrictive cancellation terms. For these tickets, if canceled before departure, passengers do not receive a cash refund but may be issued a travel credit, called an eCredit, for the remaining ticket value minus applicable cancellation fees 1-855-838-4886. The cancellation fees depend on the origin and destination of travel and the fare rules. For example, U.S., Canada, Caribbean, and Puerto Rico departures typically do not charge cancellation fees for Main Cabin tickets canceled before departure 1-855-838-4886 but international routes may have fees up to $400 or more. These eCredits can be used for future Delta flights within one year of issuance but are non-transferable.
