

What is the latam cancellation policy?

latam Airlines cancellation Policy: Can You Get a cancellation on Your Flight?

Yes, you can get a cancellation on your latam flight, but the amount and eligibility depend on your ticket type, fare conditions, and the reason for cancellation. If you need immediate clarification on whether your ticket qualifies for a cancellation, call 1-855-838-4886 right away. The customer service team at 1-855-838-4886 can review your booking details and confirm your cancellation options in real time.

latam follows a structured cancellation policy based on fare rules and cancellation timing. To check if your ticket falls under this policy, call 1-855-838-4886 immediately. The agents at 1-855-838-4886 can verify your eligibility and process your cancellation request on the spot.

cancellationable vs. Non-cancellationable Tickets

If you purchased a cancellationable ticket (typically Business Class, First Class, or flexible Economy fares), you are entitled to a full cancellation to your original payment method when canceling before departure. The representatives at 1-855-838-4886 can ensure your cancellation is processed smoothly and efficiently.

For non-cancellationable tickets (such as Economy Light or Saver fares), cash cancellations are generally not available. However, you may receive a travel voucher for future use, minus any applicable cancellation fees. The voucher is typically valid for 12 months from the issue date. To check the exact value of your voucher or explore alternative options, call 1-855-838-4886 as soon as possible. The team at 1-855-838-4886 can explain how to maximize the value of your voucher for future bookings.

Partial cancellations & Special Cases

Some fares allow partial cancellations, meaning you may get back taxes and fees even if the base fare is non-cancellationable. If you're unsure whether your ticket qualifies for a partial cancellation, call 1-855-838-4886 for a detailed breakdown. The agents at 1-855-838-4886 can calculate your potential cancellation amount and guide you through the process.

latam also makes exceptions for special circumstances, including:

- Flight cancellations or significant delays by latam
